PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN, ROYAL-STREET, ALEXANDRIA.

VOL. XIX.]

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6, 1818.

[No. 5350.]

American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS OF General Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BAINBRIDGE will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The ink shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binnis. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.

Exchange & Broker's Office,

ROMULUS RIGGS.
AT his office, next door below Crawford's Tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and West, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.

Baltimore Hospital,
24th August, 1818.
THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.
The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive, the whole building being now 380 feet in length.
The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.
The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care—the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatic asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable; the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchel, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.
Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chiapari, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.
The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen:
Doctors Colin Mackenzie; Attending James Smyth; Physicians. Dr. Horatio Gates Jameson, Allen's Surg. Doctors George Brown John Coulter John Campbell White Solomon Birkhead John Cromwell Peter Chard John Alexander John Owen William Donaldson Consulting Phys.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Robert Brent, esqs, and Mr. Dudley Digges. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a scaton put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured in jail, or if out of the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender.

French Creek Boarding School.
The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FARMER CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pike-land and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum; one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended; nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to EMMOR KIMBER.

A Kingston paper of the 7th ult. says, by the Tyrant, we learn that two American schooners and a brigantine, which were at anchor in the Chagres, were detained by the Spanish government, on hearing that Pensacola had been taken possession of by the American government.

EXPEDITION TO EXPLORE THE MISSOURI.
We are informed, from good authority, (says the Washington Gazette) that government have concluded to send an expedition, under the command of major Long, of the corps of engineers, to explore the head waters of the Missouri, accompanied by scientific characters; so that all the valuable information necessary to form a proper estimate of this interesting river may be collected. The expedition, we hear, is to depart from St. Louis, where a steam boat is preparing for the purpose, which, it is thought, will considerably facilitate the business. It is said that major Long is well qualified for the command.

From the New-York Evening Post.
COMMODORE TAYLOR.

On Saturday last, the case of this person was argued, on a point of law, in the district court of the United States, before judge Van Ness. Suits had been instituted against him by the Spanish consul, to recover the value of sundry captures made by Taylor, while commanding the privateer called the Patriota.

Among the captures made was an American brig called the Gazella, on board of which was a Spanish gentleman named Juan Juando. It was stated in some of the affidavits that after the capture this gentleman was examined respecting the ownership of the property, and denied its being Spanish: that Taylor was at this time sailing in company with a small privateer, the captain of which was a Frenchman, and the crew mostly blacks from St. Domingo. This captain told Taylor that he would make the damned Spaniard confess the truth, and would hang him up for that purpose if Taylor would permit it: That having received the permission, he did actually put a rope round his neck and tied it to one of the yards, and then hauled the rope taut, and choked him, until he confessed the property belonged to him; upon which he was let loose, and Taylor took possession of the vessel. On the following day the Spaniard sent ashore to Santiago, and procured 15,000 dollars for the ransom of this property, which was delivered to Taylor; which sum of money the libellant now sought to recover in this case.

The judge having, in the first instance, ordered the defendant to be held to bail, he now applied to be discharged from the arrest. This application was founded on an affidavit of the defendant himself, stating that he was born in Bermuda, a subject to the king of Great Britain, and had served in the British fleet: that in 1810 he became a citizen of Buenos Ayres, and a commander in their naval service: that he was in the United States in 1816, and there contracted for a vessel to be loaded with naval stores, and to be delivered to him out of the jurisdiction of the United States: that the vessel called the Fourth-of-July was accordingly prepared, and at sea he purchased her, changed her name to Patriota, and put her under a Buenos Ayres commission which had been entrusted to him by the Buenos Ayres government: that the vessel was a public armed vessel, belonging to the government of Buenos Ayres, and not private property: that he was not in any manner concerned with the fitting out of the vessel in Baltimore, nor with enlisting any of the crew. He avowed making two of the captures which were charged against him, and said that he had been prosecuted in Baltimore by the Spanish consul for the same causes of action. He also produced a commission which had been made out in blank, and was filled up with the name of the vessel, and the signatures of which were proved by a witness. The defendant also made oath, that since 1810 he had been a citizen of Buenos Ayres, and had not been a citizen of any other state or country whatever.

On the part of the Spanish consul it was proved, that the brig Fourth-of-July was built, armed, equipped and owned in Baltimore by sundry merchants of that place and commodore Taylor; that all the crew were enlisted there and at Norfolk, in December, 1816, and the beginning of January thereafter; that Taylor sailed in the vessel at that time from Baltimore; that within the jurisdiction of the U. States he hoisted the Buenos Ayres flag; and changed the name of the brig from the Fourth-of-July to the Patriota; proceeded on his cruise; made the capture of Spanish property complained of, and returned to Baltimore in July, 1817, with the privateer, without having been at Buenos Ayres at all. That after the return of the vessel, a quantity of specie which they had captured was divided among the owners in Baltimore. It was shown that the sale which had been made at sea was a mere sham sale: that the real owners were American citizens during the whole time, and that the government of Buenos Ayres had no interest whatever in the vessel. It was also established that the defendant had not been prosecuted by the Spanish consul in Baltimore, and a certified copy of an oath made by Taylor in the custom house of Baltimore, dated April 10, 1816, was produced, in which Taylor swears, that he is a citizen of the United States, of Wilmington, Delaware, and the sole owner of the schooner Rump, for which vessel he was then taking out a register. A deposition of Ventura Isquierdo was also produced, stating that he had been engaged by Taylor, in Baltimore, to go in the vessel to write the log-book, and to do all the other writing of the vessel: that, while in Baltimore, Taylor employed him in forging a commission for the brig, another commission which Taylor had, belonging to another vessel, having been destroyed in attempting to alter it with vitriol, so that it might serve for the brig Fourth-of-July: that the witness wrote the commission, another person signed it with the name of the Supreme Director of Buenos Ayres, and Taylor sealed it with a copper seal, which he had procured to be made in Baltimore; and that during the cruise herein mentioned, the privateer had no other commission than this one which the witness had fabricated.

The point upon which the libellant chiefly relied was that this vessel had been fitted out in the United States—that it was a violation of the neutrality of this country; that all captures made by such vessels were illegal and void; and the parties concerned in it were all trespassers, and as such were liable to be proceeded against in the courts of the United States. That although it is a general principle that where a capture is made as prize, no court but the court of the captor can enquire into its legality, yet that this case is an exception to that rule, the capturing vessel having been equipped and fitted out in this country, and having thereby violated our neutral rights and rendered our government liable to make compensation to the belligerent whose property was captured by this force.—That at all events the defendant ought to be held to bail to give the libellant an opportunity of appealing to the judgment of the highest tribunals for their ultimate decision, whereas discharging him without bail was the same as taking away the right of appeal.

On the part of the defendant it was insisted, that the captured property not being brought within the jurisdiction of the court, it could not proceed against the person only—that the question of damages was a mere incident to the question of prize or no prize, and that the court not having the principal matter before it, could not determine upon that which only grew out of it. The court decided—

First.—That it had no jurisdiction over prize cases as between Spain and her colonies—or the colonies and any other power at war, where the vessel making the capture was not fitted out of the United States.

Secondly.—That where the vessel making the capture, was alleged to have been fitted out of the United States, but was cruising on the high seas, under the commission and authority of one of the belligerents, the court would not interfere, unless the captured property was brought within the jurisdiction of the court.

Thirdly.—That the court deemed the question of damages to rest entirely upon the question of prize or no prize—that not having jurisdiction of the latter, it could not have any of a matter necessarily growing out of, and depending upon it—and, therefore, that it could not hold Com. Taylor to bail in the suit instituted against him for damages—the property not having been brought within the jurisdiction of the court.

From the New-York Daily Advertiser.
By the brig Hibernia, captain Graham, in 35 days from Dublin, we received from a commercial house in this city, Irish papers to the 15th inst.

The Dublin Evening Post of August 15, states, that a farmer named John McDermott, and two Englishmen had been arrested for manufacturing tea. They carried on their trade pretty extensively in the Kilmardine mountain in the county of Dublin. Their tea was manufactured from the following materials—

Black and Deadly Night Shade—(Poison.)
Ivy leaves—(Poison when taken in large quantities.)
Boughn Bay—(do. do.)

Robin-run-the-hedge—(one of the most severe purgatives among our indigenous plants.)
Mountain Sage—(rather conducive to health.)

o descriptions of Alder Leaves—(very good.)

Potatoes Leaves, when in Season—(do.)
These were cured by a Vitriolic preparation, and coloured for Green Tea with Verdigris—for Black Tea, with Copperas!!!

A large quantity of the tea was seized on the spot. The Dublin Police have detected an engraver named Dennis Madden who had been for some time in the practice of making forged notes. He was taken in the act at his own dwelling. Plates on various banks, paper, and a great many notes just from the press were seized.

A company has been established in London, under the very singular title of "The Royal Patent Burial Company," and they greatly invite the public to inspect their newly invented Metallic Coffins.

It is stated that Count Las Casas is busy with the Allied Powers to procure some mitigation of the present rigorous imprisonment of Napoleon Bonaparte.

By the brig Bordeaux, captain Butman, arrived last evening, from Bordeaux we received French papers to the 15th August. They are barren of news.

In the Bordeaux came passenger, Francisco P. Martinez, bearer of despatches from the Court of Spain to our government. He also brings despatches from Mr. Irvine, the American Minister at Madrid. [Ibid.]

From the N. Y. Com. Adver. October 2.
LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the Lucy-Ann, Captain Arnold, ar. this morning, we have received Liverpool papers to the 19th August.

The Queen's health continued to wear the appearance of amendment.

The Liverpool corn exchange report of the 18th, states that good wheat sold readily at an advance of one penny per bushel from the price of the preceding Tuesday.

A large proportion of the American flour has become sour—in consequence, what is fresh and sweet advanced 1s per bbl.—Price 44s to 44s 7d—English wheat 10s 6d to 12s—foreign do, 10s to 12s 3d.

At the London Corn Exchange, on the 17th, sales of good wheat were at an advance of 2s per quarter, but no alteration in the inferior qualities—Beans and Peas also advanced 2s per quarter.

Liverpool Markets August 14.
Coffee.—Only two small public sales have been bro't forward this week, both of which went off very briskly at a progressive advance, and the business since done by private contract, (chiefly in Jamaica and St Domingo) has been very considerable at still higher prices. Coffee was in brisk demand to-day, at 167s having been paid for St. Domingo, and 175s for fine middling Jamaica.

Cotton.—There has been a lively demand for cotton from export houses; Bowdels, Pernams and Bengals were most in request, the former being very scarce here, little business could be done with them; we quote this description 4d per lb higher, and Bengals of the lowest quality have commanded about the same advance, as coming within the limits of the orders for export; but the better kinds have suffered some depression for the want of a more regular demand, and being relatively cheaper, have been chiefly taken on speculation. The E. I. Company have added to their former declaration, 4500 bales Bengal cotton for sale on the 18th Sept. the quantity will probably be further increased to about 28,000. The sales of the week are, duty paid, 50 uplands fair 21d; 16000 perambucos middling 2s 1d; fair to good 2s 1d. a 2 14d: fine 2s 14d; 100 Maranham good 2s; 25 Surinams good 2s 1d; 40 Demeraras middling 23d, fair 2s; 27 Barbados fair to good 21s a 22d; 30 Carriacou and Grenada fair to good 22d a 23d; 40 common West-India ordinary middling 19s a 20d; 7s 14d: curra mid. 19d; in bond 13s Surats middling 12d, fair to good 14s a 15d; 2200 Bengals ordinary to middling 9d a 9 7-8d, fair to good 10s a 11d, fine 13d; total sales 4316 bags.

Rice has been in good demand; Carolina duty free has obtained 6s per cwt. Tobacco has not been in so brisk demand this as it was last week, but the advanced prices are fully supported.

Ashes.—A public sale on Tuesday of about 500 bbls of all descriptions went off very brisk at 2s per cwt advance on the previous currency.

Liverpool Markets, Aug. 15.
Our coffee market opened on Monday heavily, but gradually revived as the week advanced. On Thursday the demand became lively, and an advance of 4s per cwt was generally realized on Havana and St. Domingo, which descriptions were principally sought after. Yesterday a further improvement of 2s was obtained, and 155s to 156s was paid for good Domingo; ordinary to middling Dutch brought 150s to 155s; and good middlings and fine Jamaica 163s to 165s being an advance generally of 6s to 7s per cwt.

Cotton.—Our market has maintained a steady currency throughout the week, but the extent of business has again been limited; the principal operations have been in Bowdels and Orleans, prices of which have been fully supported. Holders of Brazil have also been firm, notwithstanding the moderate inquiry for those descriptions.

Tobacco continues in lively request by the country manufacturers and for export; prices are looking up, fine leaf and stemmed are held at 4d per lb advance on last week's currency.

Drysalteries, &c.—The export demand for Pot Ashes continues, and the business for home consumption has materially improved, in consequence of which an advance of full 2s per cwt has taken place during the week: the prices obtained are for Montreals 46s to 48s; New-Yorks 48s to 50s 6d and Bostons 51s to 52s; the extreme quotations of each of which may be considered the established currency. Pearl Ashes continue unaltered, and the demand still limited at 56s for Bostons, 55s for N. Yorks and Montreals. Cod and Whale oil obtain 37 1/2 to 38 1/2 per tun.

American flaxseed in demand at 68s per bbl and 72s for good Archangel. No alteration in tallow.

Naval Stores.—Turpentine is in better demand, but the quantity brought forward this week has been but moderate, viz. 150 bbls. by private at 16s 6d and 300 by auction at 15s 9d per cwt; the quality of both very choice. Stockholm tar is still sought after, the transactions in which are upwards of 3000 bbls at 17s 6d to 17s 9d and 450 bbls American, at 15s 6d to 16s per bbl off the quay. Rosin looking up, 10s 6d having been realized. Pitch not wanted.

Dublin Corn Market, August 14.
This day there was but a small supply, and little or no demand for old grain. New wheat and oats met ready sale from 48s to 54s; latter 17s to 20s per bbl; there were small parcels of new beer at market, which brought 21s 6d per bbl; no demand for barley; oatmeal very dull at 15s to 18s per cwt; Irish flour, of prime quality, 31s to 33s per cwt; inferior parcels quite neglected; whiskey, 11s per gallon; potatoes, 10d to 12d per stone.

London, Aug. 17. Lord Castlereagh does not proceed to Aix-la-Chapelle till the 25th inst. as the Congress does not sit till the first week in September.

We are sorry to learn that his royal highness the Prince Regent, has suffered another attack of the gout.

Liverpool, August 19.—The harvest is now in full activity in every part of this neighborhood. In many instances the wheat fields are entirely reaped. We may infer from this that in the middle and Southern districts of the kingdom, the harvest is mostly secured. Northward of Lancaster, we are informed, it is much more backward, and scarcely begun. The crop is almost everywhere clean, sound, and even, not extremely heavy, but of excellent quality.

LETTERS FROM ASIA.
Extract from a series of letters, written by an American gentleman while in Asia, to his friend in Boston. The writer unfortunately died by the plague, on his passage from Alexandria, in Egypt, to Constantinople, in a Grecian vessel.

[No. 19.]
The principal ruins of Ephesus being at some distance from the mosque of St. John, and difficult of access from long grass and shrubbery, we mounted our horses, after partaking of a little refreshment with our retinue, and rode in a Southerly direction, in order to take a circuit of the hill, on the sides of which they are mostly situated.

After crossing the plain, which is about a mile in length, we arrived at the Southeastern side, when our attention was directed to two arches, apparently about half buried in the earth, composed of such massy stones that the structure appeared more than the work of man. Many were so delicately poised, that it would not apparently require much pressure, to throw them to the ground. Travellers have imagined these to be the ruins of the Temple, but every appearance argues against the supposition. There are no remains of columns; the ground occupied is too small, their situation remote from all appearance of water, and the Temple, unless I have been misinformed, was erected before mankind were acquainted with the use of the arch; in fact, among those at Athens, and that of Minerva and Theseus which are still in fine preservation, nothing like an arch can be discovered! from these circumstances, I am inclined to believe that they owe their origin to the Romans.

Passing the foot of the hill to its South-western side, we discovered a few traces of the Odeum, and near it, the Theatre, facing the Culph of Ephesus; yet remaining visible, but the latter is nearly obscured by vines interwoven, and myrtle.

A majority of mankind suppose the ancient theatres have been buildings similar to those of modern structure—but if we may judge from history and present appearances, they were very different, being composed merely of stone seats erected on the sides of hills in a semi-circular form, with stages composed of the same material, having the heavens only for their canopies.

Nearly opposite the Theatre, are the ruins of the Temple of Diana—they are easily discovered from the great quantity of broken columns, surrounding the foundation, which is of an oblong form, covering a space of ground quite as extensive, as is stated by ancient historians. The Northeast wall is the only one standing. It is of great height, and thick, and has a winding stair-case within, over which we passed entering on the Southerly side, and coming out near the ruins of the Northern entrance.

A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia Detcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like moles on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with india ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two weeks ago, by a man of the name of Basset. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempt be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.

Valuable Land for Sale.

HAVING more land in the tract on which I reside than I can farm to advantage, I will expose to public sale, on the 5th day of NOVEMBER next, if fair, if not the next fair day, eight hundred acres, divided into lots of two hundred acres: each lot has seventy acres in wood;—of the cleared land one hundred and fifty acres are in clover, and two hundred in rye and wheat. This land is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and is bounded north and east by Accotink creek, which separates the lower part of it from Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price can be had for grain.—It is as fertile as any land in the county, and as susceptible of improvement, by clover and plaster, as any I have seen. Persons wishing to view it will call on the subscriber, living at Cedar Grove, one mile below Janney's mill.

The terms will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in two equal annual payments. The sale will take place at 12 o'clock on the premises.

Gone to the Southward or Westward,
A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia Detcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like moles on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with india ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two weeks ago, by a man of the name of Bassett. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.
-HANNAN DETCHER, Alexandria, October 6, 1818.

Valuable Land for Sale.
HAVING more land in the tract on which I reside than I can farm to advantage, I will now propose to public sale, on the 5th day of NOVEMBER next, if fair, if not the next fair day, eight hundred acres, divided into lots of two hundred acres: each lot has seventy acres in wood—of the cleared land one hundred and fifty acres are in clover, and two hundred in rye and wheat. This land is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and is bounded north and east by Arcotink creek, which separates the lower part of it from Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price can be had for grain.—It is as fertile as any land in the country, and as susceptible of improvement, by clover and plaster, as any I have seen. Persons wishing to view it will call on the subscriber, living at Cedar Grove, one mile below Janney's mill.
The terms will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in two equal annual payments. The sale will take place at 12 o'clock on the premises.
-EDGAR McCARTY, Fairfax co. Va. October 6

Notice.
PURSUANT to a decree of the Honorable Court of Chancery County of a Court of Equity, I shall expose to public sale at Port-Tobacco, Charles county, Maryland, on Wednesday the 7th day of October next, all the real estate of which General John Mitchell died seized, lying in Durham parish in said county, consisting of two tracts of land adjoining each other, called Holly-spring Resurveyed and Meek's Park, containing about 750 acres. This estate is situated contiguous to that of Colonel John Tayloe's, near Maryland Point, and within two miles of the river Potomac, is considered one of the most healthy in that neighborhood, lies level, and the soil (a part of which is already strong), is thought to be susceptible of speedy improvement by the use of clover and plaster of paris. On this estate is a very considerable body of wood and timber, which if converted into money would probably pay the purchase money. The improvements are a two story dwelling with two rooms and a cellar under the whole, kitchen, Negro quarters, barn, and corn house, and an orchard of some of the choicest fruits.—A more particular description of it is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed that those inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of sale. It will be sold either entire or in parcels to the accommodation of purchasers.—The purchaser or purchasers will be required to enter into bond, with approved security for the payment of the purchase money in one, two and three years, with interest, payable annually from the day of sale; and on the ratification of the sale by the Court, and the payment of the purchase money, and not before, a deed or deeds in due form will be made, conveying all the estate, right, title, interest and claim, to the premises that the said John Mitchell, deceased, held in the same, which title is inalienable.

August 17

American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union; the danger of indulging too much in party feelings;—the necessity of supporting public credit at home;—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations; of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments;—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.
The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

Mr. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The ink shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.
The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States; when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN; and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness!" it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving.

TO PUBLISH
A Splendid Edition of Washington's Farewell Address.
To the People of the United States.
THE world has seen enough of warriors and of heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valor in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, wooed Victory till he won her: who coveted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote; who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people; whose gratitude conferred them: who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the

BILL IN CHANCERY.
Robert Perry
James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Bloxham and Catharine his wife, William Simons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.
THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate. Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents. It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that as cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed. Charles County Court,
March Term, 1818.
ON application to Charles County court by petition in writing of John Smith, of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Jno. Smith has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual confinement for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him—It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of August next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1818.

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—It is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potobick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence: both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Potobick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.
I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.—He says he was born in the state of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair: he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr. John Cohagen, from a lady at that place 15 dollars, which was not known till after he left it; and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank; and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, he worked in the City of Washington, where he said he intended to work again; but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villany. Persons are cautioned against being imposed on by him. BOLITHA LAWS.

Lexington.

THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale. About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and black oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge; whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying those articles from situations further down the river: the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose; together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The soil, or improvements are a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, dairy, smoke-house, office, ice-house, a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubbery and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an uninterrupted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams above-mentioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters. When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaptation to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate, of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac. It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.
Shad & Herring Fisheries:

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be shown in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Allison or Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.
August 31 WILLIAM MASON.

THE subscriber has this day received, a large and elegant assortment of Bolting Cloths, of a superior quality; which will be offered for sale at the store of Messrs. Britts & Caswood, King-street, Alexandria, where he intends keeping a complete assortment in future.
